Professional Development Services	$36,080.00	Incrementally after each date

3. Professional Development Services

3.1. Description of Services: Solution Tree will provide speakers ("Associates") to perform the professional development services described in Exhibit A. Customer may request to add participants for $2,000.00 per additional participant.

3.2. Digital Rights License Grant: If Solution Tree determines that a session needs to be recorded or pre-recorded to ensure availability, Solution Tree will record or pre-record the sessions (the "Recordings") and grant Customer a limited, nonexclusive, nontransferable license to access and view the Recordings via password-protected links for a period of time, after which Solution Tree will disable each link. Any such Recordings may be used only by Customer's educators and may not be duplicated or distributed.

3.3. Presentation Materials: Customer will reproduce any handouts and other print materials related to the services and will notify the Associate directly of any deadlines for reproduction.

3.4. Venue and Audio/Visual Equipment: Customer will provide a venue, audio/video equipment, and technical support as applicable for all sessions. If Customer's equipment fails during the services, Customer will still be liable for the full amount.

4. Resources: Each year of the PLC at Work Project, a portion of the fees will be allocated to the purchase of Solution Tree resources. Customer and Solution Tree will collaborate to select resources aligned with Customer's needs and progress in the PLC at Work Project. Solution Tree will ship resources after an invoice has been generated. Solution Tree will not ship any resources without a purchase order or full payment.

5. Event Registrations: Each year of the PLC at Work Project includes 5 registrations for a Solution Tree event. Customer may choose to attend in-person or virtually, if a virtual option is available. Solution Tree will process Event Registrations upon receipt of a purchase order or full payment. If Event Registrations become unavailable prior to Customer providing Solution Tree with a purchase order or full payment, then Solution Tree will have the right to terminate the provisions of this Agreement regarding Event Registrations. Any substitutions must be submitted in writing via email (Registration@SolutionTree.com) or fax (866.390.4161).

6. General Terms

- 6.1. Intellectual Property: Customer acknowledges that all tangible or electronic presentation materials, handouts, and/or program books used in conjunction with services performed under this Agreement are pre-existing and that no materials will be developed specifically for Customer. All previously owned rights will be retained, and Customer may not reproduce any materials not designated reproducible without express written permission. All audio, video, and digital recording of the services by Customer is prohibited.
- 6.2. Force Majeure: If an event beyond the parties' control makes performance impossible, illegal, or commercially impracticable (a "Force Majeure Event"), the parties will proceed as follows:
- If a Force Majeure Event prevents services from occurring onsite, the parties will arrange for the affected services to be delivered virtually on the scheduled dates.
 - If a Force Majeure Event prevents services from occurring as scheduled, the parties will use best efforts to reschedule or make substitutions for affected services or products.
 - If a Force Majeure Event prevents performance entirely, neither party will have any further liability to the other party for the prevented performance.
 - All obligations unaffected by a Force Majeure Event will remain in place.
- 6.3. Termination: Solution Tree may terminate this Agreement if Customer does not provide a purchase order at least 30 days before the first scheduled date.
- Professional Development Services: If Customer seeks to cancel any services within 90 days of the scheduled date for any reason but Force Majeure, Customer will reimburse Solution Tree for any reasonable business expenses incurred in anticipation of performance of this Agreement that exceed the amount of the deposit.
- 6.4. Contingency: This Agreement is contingent upon the execution and validity of a similar Solution Tree Purchase Agreement between Solution Tree and at least 10 districts who will join the same cohort of the PLC at Work Project. If the cohort does not reach 10 districts, Solution Tree may terminate this Agreement.
- 6.5. Entire Agreement: This Agreement, any purchase orders issued pursuant to this Agreement, any RFP in place between the parties, any other written agreement executed by the parties for the same services included in this Agreement, and any exhibits attached hereto constitute the entire agreement of the parties and supersede any prior or contemporaneous written or oral understanding or agreement. No waiver or modification of any of the terms of the Agreement will be effective unless made in writing and signed by both parties, and the unenforceability, invalidity, or illegality of any provision of this Agreement will not render the other provisions unenforceable, invalid, or illegal. Any waiver by either party of any default or breach hereunder will not constitute a waiver of any provision of this Agreement or of any subsequent default or breach of the same or a different kind.

This Agreement is acknowledged and accepted by Customer and Solution Tree:

RESOLUTION 2021/2022-05
Sale of Surplus Real Property

WHEREAS, Chewelah School District No. 36, Stevens County, Washington ("District"), is a public school district duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the Constitution and laws of the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the District has declared that the following described real property, situated in the County of Stevens, State of Washington, is no longer required for school purposes and is surplus to the foreseeable needs of the District:

Parcel Number: 8977516

Beginning at the Southeast corner of Block Five (5) of Jenkins Addition to the town of Chewelah, according to Plat thereof recorded in Book B of Plats, page 4, in Stevens County, Washington; thence running from said Southeast corner in a straight line West to the Southwest corner of Lot Ten (10) in Block Six (6) of said Jenkins Addition; thence North in a straight line to the North line of said Block Six (6); thence due East to the East line of said Block Five (5); thence South on the East line of said Block Five (5) to the Southeast corner of said Block Five (5) to the place of beginning.

Together with that part of vacated FIRST STREET lying between Blocks Five (5) and Six (6) and that part of the vacated alley in between Lots One (1) and Twelve (12) in Block Six (6) vacated by Ordinance No. 29 recorded under Auditor's File No. 205084 in Volume 113, page 256 of Deeds.

EXCEPT that part of said Block Five (5) deeded to the State of Washington by the Consolidated School District No. 36 on October 23, 1943 and recorded in Volume 113, page 463 of Deeds.

Lots 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9, Block 6 of Jenkins Addition to the town of Chewelah, according to Plat thereof recorded in Book B of Plats, page 4, in Stevens County, Washington.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved by the Board of Directors of Chewelah School District No. 36 as follows:

That the administration is directed to publish a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the District of the Board's desire and proposal to sell the above described real property in accordance with RCW 28A.335.120.

RESOLUTION adopted this 2nd day of June, 2022.

Vision Self-Assessment

Use this tool to assess your initial understanding of vision and to get a sense of where you are as a board on this essential work. Indicate the degree to which your local board/district/staff has achieved the following elements toward establishing a vision to improve student achievement.

	Fully Achieved	Mostly Achieved	Partially Achieved	Beginning to Achieve	Don't Know/ Unsure
Stakeholder representatives (school board, senior leadership, district staff, school staff, employee organizations, parents, community advocates, business leaders, and students) helped to create the vision.
As a board, we have discussed the core values of our school district, and these values are reflected in our vision.
Our board has established a written vision that commits to student achievement as the top priority of the school board, staff, and community.
Our vision, mission, core values, and strategic plan are clearly articulated and known to all community members who have a vested interest.
We revisit, reaffirm, or revise our vision to ensure our constancy of purpose.
Our vision is the guiding force that sets the framework for how we operate as a district.
Our vision is the foundation for all long-range strategic planning and policy decisions.
We base our resource and budget decisions on our vision.
Everything we do as a board (decision-making, policy adoption, etc.) aligns to achieve our vision.

Accountability Self-Assessment

Use this tool to assess your initial understanding of accountability and to get a sense of where you are as a board on this essential work of accountability to improve student learning. Indicate the degree to which your board/district/staff has achieved the following elements toward establishing measures of accountability to improve student achievement.

	Fully Achieved	Mostly Achieved	Partially Achieved	Beginning to Achieve	Don't Know/Unsure
Our district publishes an annual report of progress.
Our annual report is easy to understand and includes data on student achievement and district performance related to district goals, standards, growth, and improvement.
The format of our report is consistent from year to year and includes data from prior years.
We compare our data with data from other districts that are similar to ours.
We examine our data by gender, race, and socioeconomic status to measure the success of all students.
We use our student achievement data to make decisions and establish district priorities.
We communicate to the public how our decisions are linked to student achievement data.
Principals and teachers use student achievement data to make decisions and set instructional priorities.
We use our student achievement data to plan staff development and to recognize and reward teacher performance.
We tie evaluations of staff and ourselves as board members to student achievement results.
Our district has established student performance standards that clearly define what students are supposed to know and be able to do at each grade level.
We have local standards beyond the state standards to reflect our community expectations for student achievement and learning.

Policy Self-Assessment

Use this tool to assess your initial understanding of policy and to get a sense of where you are as a board on this essential work. Indicate the degree to which your local board/district/staff has achieved the following elements toward establishing a policy process to support its vision to improve student achievement.

	Fully Achieved	Mostly Achieved	Partially Achieved	Beginning to Achieve	Don't Know/Unsure
Stakeholder representatives (school board, senior leadership, district staff, school staff, employee organizations, parents, community advocates, and students) were appropriately involved with the policy development process.
As a board, we have discussed how our role as policymakers is to ensure alignment of the school district's action with the board's vision.
The superintendent has developed administrative procedures/regulations that are aligned with appropriate board policies.
Our policies are comprehensive, practical, consistent, and based on current law and community needs and expectations.
Our policies identify measurable outcomes or objectives where appropriate.
Our policies provide a framework for appraising district educational services.
Our policies allow for fair, reasonable, consistent, and objective treatment of issues.
We are continually and systematically monitoring our policies to ensure we are getting the intended results.
We have a policy review protocol that ensures that our entire policy manual is systematically reviewed to ensure it is up-to-date and relevant.
We have a policy delineating our policy development process.

We understand that collaboration begins with us.
We understand our role as community leaders and advocates for children.
We have policies and practices in place to encourage parents to be active partners in their children's education.
We work collaboratively with the superintendent in communicating with our various stakeholders.
We are involved at the state level advocating for our students.
We use various ways to communicate as part of our communications plan (advisory committees, etc.).
We model the kind of collaboration we expect to see in others.
We focus on issues that unite rather than divide us.
Our policies reflect our community engagement goals and practices (social media, parent participation, etc.).
We strategically use social media to inform and hear from members of our community.
We take time to reflect on and improve our own internal and external relationships.

We have discussed and understand our complementary roles as board members and superintendent.
We have a clear communication process with the superintendent and with one another.
We have established and adhere to our board operating norms/code of conduct.
Members come to meetings prepared to discuss and add value to the decision-making process.
We annually evaluate the superintendent.
We discuss issues from a variety of points of view and, when a decision is made, we support it fully.
We participate in board retreats to build relationships and learn together as allowed by our state's open meetings/sunshine laws.
We participate in professional development by attending meetings, workshops, and conferences.
We advocate for positions without being argumentative.
We maintain confidentiality.
We respect colleagues, staff, community, and students by listening to all points of view and communicating openly and honestly.
We make decisions that reflect the goals and priorities of the school system and support them fully.
